THE FLOOD GATES OPEN

This Section Has For the First Time In Months a Genuine Downpour.

LOW PARTS OF THE CITY SUBMERGED

Street Car Traffic for a While Was Delayed—Experiences on the Trestle Through Mahone's Lake—Bank and Cove Streets Flooded—The Umbrellaless Suffered.

The flood gates of heaven, so long locked, were opened wide last night, and for the first time since the latter part of July this section was treated to a real bona fide downright hard rain. More water fell last night than in thirty days before, and nobody grumbled, though many were caught down town without umbrellas and received a good ducking. Among these unfortunate were numerous ladies and children who attended the matinee performance at the Academy of Music and Morris Bros. dog and pony show.

The rain will have the effect of replenishing the water in the lakes, and was also very badly needed in the country. It was unaccompanied by very high wind, yet the tide was unusually high, and all low parts of the city were submerged. Street car traffic was impeded, though for a comparatively short time. High water came at 7:48 p. m. At precisely that time a car was making its way to Brambleton over the trestle which is built through Mahone's lake. The water had risen through the sleepers and to the tops of the rails. In the case of this particular car, it reached the motor and there was a sudden stop, accompanied by an odor of baptized lightning, and a dozen queries from more or less interested passengers who were anxious to get home to supper and their business. Fortunately the car was able to proceed after a few minutes delay, but it did not attempt to go back over town until the water subsided, which it did with remarkable rapidity. At the same time the car going to Brambleton was wading through the water on the trestle, another was coming over to the city laden with patrons of the Academy of Music. Now, the track coming back to Norfolk is slightly lower than that going over to Brambleton, and the motor on the city-bound car was told that he could not cross. He accordingly stopped his car for about twenty minutes and awaited results. Some of the passengers got out and walked, coming over via Holt street bridge. The rest remained and amused themselves as best they could until the water went down.

On Bank street, at the intersection of City Hall avenue, a large lake formed with an arm running down Cove to Avon, lovingly embracing the Court yard square on its north side. There were lakes on Gray, Duke and York streets also, while the streets of Brambleton and Atlantic City were converted into mud canals.

Down on Water street the Norfolk and Western shifting engine was obliged to stop work for awhile, the water coming up to its firebox and threatening to extinguish its fires. Several excavations for unfinished foundations caught enough rain to last the city for quite a time could it be made available in case of another dry spell.

SUFFICIENT WATER SUPPLY.

Full Pressure in the Mains Connecting With Lake Joyce.

Connections have been made with Lake Joyce and the city is now receiving its supply of water from this new addition to the city lakes. It is expected that there will be an ample supply from now on provided that there should be an average rainfall during the winter months, and a great deal of it depends upon the character of these rainfalls. The kind of rain that does the water supply the most good is one that falls rapidly and runs off the ground quickly. The gentle, steady rain is absorbed by the earth and consequently does not increase the amount in the lakes very materially. At the artesian well the pipes are now in a layer of blue clay. During the past week an advance has been made of seven feet, making the present depth 1.70 feet.

AMONG OUR COTTON MEN.

Generally clear weather in the cotton section.

United States receipts at the ports were 56,556 bales yesterday, against 40,917 last year, and 53,859 in 1894.

New York future market declined from 6 to 7 points, closing barely steady.

Sales, 129,400 bales, December, 5.96@5.97; January, 5.98@5.99; March, 6.06.

Spot cotton unchanged.

Liverpool futures declined 3 1/4 points, and closed quiet. Spot market declined 1-3/4—3-9-16d for middling. Sales 7,000 bales.

New Orleans future market declined 8 points. December contracts, 5.62.

The exports of cotton yesterday were 52,292 bales, against 18,503 bales last year.

Bar silver in London declined 1/4d per ounce—27d, against 30-1-16d last year.

Spot cotton declined from 1-1/4 to 1-1/2c in the Southern markets. Sales at Memphis, 4,000 bales.

The Houston Cotton Exchange reports that an error of 22,000 bales has been found in Western stock which will be deducted on Monday. Error due to failure of one of the roads to report shipments.

New Orleans receipts on Monday are estimated at 11,000 to 12,000 bales, against 21,158 bales last year, and 32,123 bales in 1894.

AMUSEMENTS.

PRIMROSE & WEST.—To-morrow night Primrose & West's minstrels will be the attraction at the Academy of Music, on which occasion they will be seen in an entirely new bill from that last presented here, and with a company of artists superior to any they have ever offered to their patrons. Unlike last season, the company is composed of white men, no negroes being employed in the performance at all. Mr. Primrose will again be seen in the exemplification of the dandy colored eon, but with a new budget of songs. The great tenor Raymond Moore, author of "Sweet Marie," will sing new selections from his own compositions, while a company of more than forty artists will use every endeavor to make the occasion a joyful one. Prices of admission will be, entire first floor, $1.00; balcony, 75c. and 50c.; gallery, 50c.

WALKER WHITESIDE.—Mr. Walker Whiteside will appear in this city Wednesday, October 27, as Raoul de Renaux, and Solomon Notre-dame, in his new play, The Man in Black. Mr. Whiteside's forthcoming engagement will from present indications be one of the most successful ones ever played in this city. In these days we are cynical, or rather, assailed with so much that is unworthy a place in the amusement world, that it becomes a pleasure to welcome to our midst an actor whose auditors are never depressed with the sense of being unworthily occupied, but who steadily feel the force of a commanding intellect and an intense nature concentrated on the sincere and beneficial treatment of momentous themes. Sale of seats commences Tuesday morning. Usual prices.

The "Three Star Comedy company" closed its engagement at the Academy of Music last evening with a highly pleasing presentation of "Rip Van Winkle," with Robert Wayne in the title role, and his clever wife, Gretchen. Despite the miserable weather the audience was large and it was also appreciative. The performance was well received. The "Three Star" people made many friends here, who will be glad to welcome them when they come again.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE

Many Matters of Interest Around City Hall Square.

NUMEROUS EVIL DOERS PUNISHED

A Jack-Tar and a Negro Have Trouble.—H. Collinsky, a Main Street Clothier Executed a Deed of Assignment—Other Notes of no Little Interest.

In the Police Court yesterday Justice Tomlin awarded the penalty due the various evil-doers who faced him for their respective offences.

Thomas Dalton, a "Jack Tar" from the United States gunboat Wilmington, was charged with being drunk and disorderly. He informed His Honor that he had been landing at this port for the past fifteen years and that this was the first time he had been arrested for the offense with which he was charged. Justice Tomlin told him to be sure that he did not appear before him again, and dismissed the charge, but just as the sailor was about to leave the room he was again made to appear at the bar to answer the charge of fighting with William Simmons, a negro prisoner, in the station-house. Dalton stated that Simmons had called him a vile name, and when he resented it the negro hit him on the arm, at the same time exhibiting the bruised member. The charge against the sailor was dismissed and Simmons was fined $5 and costs.

John Stokes, who lives in Atlantic City, was charged with using abusive language. The warrant was sworn out by his wife, who is employed at one of the factories in Atlantic City. The couple have had frequent quarrels of late, the husband saying the wife was at fault and the wife claiming the same regarding her husband. After hearing the evidence Justice Tomlin imposed a fine of $10 and costs for abusive language. Mr. Tilton, attorney for the accused, noted an appeal to the Corporation Court, and the prisoner was released upon his own recognizance to appear on Monday.

Charles Dixon, white, drunk; $1 and costs.

Richard Tucker, colored, wanted in Petersburg for a felony, arrested by Officer West, was held for the authorities.

Sam Brothers and George Dempsey, colored, suspicion of theft; held.

John Goodman, colored, suspected of stealing shoes which he had in his possession and who refused to tell where he got them or where he lived, was held for further examination.

William Manderson, colored, suspicious character; half hour to leave town.

Sam Perry, colored, cruelty to animals; discharged.

Belle Turner, attempting to shoot Oliver Sawyer, colored; discharged.

J. C. Cato, colored, theft of a $30 bicycle from J. W. Kirk; continued and prisoner bailed in $50.

John Goodman, colored, suspected of harbor thieving; held ten days for further examination.

Laura Lee, colored, fighting with Matilda Robertson, colored; fined $3. The Robertson girl was discharged.

COURT OF LAW AND CHANCERY.

In the Court of Law and Chancery yesterday the following suit was entered:

The H. E. Owen Grain company vs. J. J. Snider, trading as Snider & Little, assumed; damages $200.

CLERK'S OFFICE.

In the Clerk's office the following deed of assignment and real estate transfers were recorded:

Deed of assignment from H. Collinsky to P. J. Morris, trustee, all his stock of clothing, gent's furnishing goods, hats, caps, etc., contained in store No. 375 Main street, together with all his household and kitchen furniture contained in house No. 56 Falkland street. B. Miller is named as a preferred creditor in the sum of $216.64, the other creditors to be paid pro rata.

James H. Rowland, of Port Deposit, Md., transferred to the Norfolk Warehouse company water front property in Atlantic City Ward, fronting 715 feet on Front street, $114,000. Deferred payment for $30,000 secured by deed of trust on the property except cotton press.

Lloyd L. Williams to S. Q. Collins, a lot with improvements on the north side of Armistead Bridge road, Atlantic City Ward, $1,100.

Those who head the procession do not take the dust.
